University of Nebraska–Lincoln Extension

Building Leaders for a Stronger Future

Goal: Enlarge the pool of prospective UNL Extension professionals in Nebraska and increase the work force diversity of the organization.

Objectives:

- Analyze leadership practices used in UNL Extension or community programs
- Develop a variety of communication skills necessary for leadership in teaching, media presentations, recruitment and personal interactions with diverse audiences.
- Understand leadership role of Extension faculty in establishing and maintaining community/county/state linkages and networks.
- Plan, execute and evaluate an educational program that meets a need for youth and adults.

What:

- Intern position for undergraduate/graduate student in UNL Extension.
- Twelve week salaried position.
- Credit hours and course requirements to be determined jointly by academic department and Cooperative Extension. Academic credit will be issued by the department.
- Available to students completing either sophomore or junior undergraduate year or to a graduate student if allowed by the department.

When: Summer sessions

Where: Located and supervised in a county University of Nebraska–Lincoln Extension office, location to be determined in the spring upon application of student and supervisor. Students may have the opportunity for a split appointment between a rural and urban setting.

Why you should apply to be an intern with University of Nebraska–Lincoln Extension?

- Learn more about a career with University of Nebraska–Lincoln Extension.
- Gain experience in teaching in a non-formal setting to both youth and adult audiences.
- Experience living and working in a new part of Nebraska.
- Add a valuable work experience to your resume.
- It's a great summer job!

How: Return the attached application and letters of recommendation to Kathleen Lodl, 211 Ag Hall, University of Nebraska, Lincoln, NE 68583 by November 1.

University of Nebraska Lincoln

University of Nebraska–Lincoln Extension educational programs abide with the nondiscrimination policies of the University of Nebraska–Lincoln and the United States Department of Agriculture.

IANR